  - c. About the stuff that happened with Team 5 at Greek Jam. The entire thing makes our whole community look bad. All of FSL, but particularly IFC, because let's be honest, it's much more likely that a fraternity kid did it rather than a sorority one. I'm going to ask you guys to encourage your chapters to not point any fingers or honestly to not talk about it at all. I'm sure the University is digging into it and they'll deal with it with their terms. The worst thing you can do for our community is to spread rumors, a prospective member doesn't see a singular chapter, they see the community as a whole. If you have any information regarding what happened, please bring it to Carlye or myself and we can get it where it needs to go. Stay off of fuckin YikYak.
