In your opinion, what should the purpose of the new Multicultural Resource Center be?

“A space to provide training for staff on how to be allies to diverse students”

“TO LEARN”

“To provide an area for students to come together and have access to resources and staff”

Responses

A space to provide training for staff on how to be allies to diverse students

TO LEARN

To provide an area for students to come together and have access to whatever they need to be more comfortable, as well as race, gender, and sexual oriented resources and staff

The purpose of the new Mrc should be more inclusive especially for students with disabilities

A Bigger space that makes sure that BIPOC and LGBTQ+ students are given agency and not just for a photo opp a space that unifies students who are different and alike to foster meaningful relationship building and networking

Having events on campus to facilitate conversations and providing a safe space for minorities on campus to get resources

Should include a visible space for the immigrant and international student community

Catalyst for change

Actually be utilized to its full potential, instead of something just to show off and say "Oh look we have this space, are you happy birthday?"

A space that encourages new ideas and learning, and comfortability on campus

Again, To voice intersectionality invisibility issues

The last part got cut off, the MRC need more exposure

Yes im texting

to be accessible and inviting for all cultures

A modern space with the technology and resources to accommodate all people and make them feel valuable.

A space for students belonging to all minorities to form a community and actually feel accepted and valued as part of the MSU community

A space to learn about other cultures outside of your own.

To be more welcoming and visible to students across the campus. Not being stuck in a broken basement and behind starbucks

Again just a place for us to enjoy ourselves and feel like we belong instead of us behind hidden

A place for anyone to come to learn and be educated on diverse student issues

To highlight and welcome minority students, and let them be themselves

Fully staffed center that has race specific offices

To continue encouraging and supporting the livelihood and experiences of underrepresented students on a PWI.

Integration of culture

Primarily a space big enough for everyone to come together

I personally don't think the purpose really has to change, I just t

A relational space to encourage dialogue

It should be a space that's worth something not a hideout in the basement

In your opinion, what is the current purpose of the Multicultural Resource Center?

“space for students of color to socialize, feel comfortable, feel safe, have resources, and just see people who look like them”

“Provides resources and networks for underrepresented students”

“Create a community space”
