

October 14, 2024

Vol. 2, Iss. 9

Weekly Newsletter

HOMECOMING

Happy Homecoming Week!

Homecoming is a great opportunity to connect with other students, alumni, faculty, staff, and the community. The week is “chalked” full of fun activities for students to get involved in. Check out the schedule of activities starting on page 3 of the Homecoming Packet, found here: https://www.missouristate.edu/StudentEngagement/Homecoming/_Files/HOCOPacket_2024_Updates.pdf

GROUP CONNECT

Friday, October 18th
11a-12p in PSU 315

The Group Connect this week will be conducted by the Student Counseling Center. They will discuss their intake process and the many resources they have to offer to aid students and their mental health. Sign up at: givepul.se/2gm9bc.

DECEMBER GRADUATES

Are you graduating this December with either your Undergraduate or Graduate degree? If so, you are invited to the Multicultural Achievement Celebration on Wednesday, December 4th in the MRC. Drop-in anytime between 4p-6p to receive a kente stole, certificate, and gift bag. You must register for this event, to receive a stole. Please go to the following link to register: bit.ly/MAC-FA24.

INAUGURATION

Just a reminder that on Thursday, October 17th the MSU Board of Governors will hold the inauguration of our 12th president, Biff Williams, from 4p-5p at Juanita K. Hammons Hall. All are invited!

MID-TERM GRADES

PLEASE READ VERY CAREFULLY!!!

For those students that took mid-terms, grades will be made available on Thursday, October 17th. All scholars will be evaluated at that time, and for any scholar that is deemed to be “in danger” of not meeting their scholarship requirements will be contacted to have a mandatory 1-on-1 meeting. Scholars that have been chosen to have 1-on-1 meetings, will be contacted directly. You will have until Friday, December 6th to fulfill this requirement by either scheduling a meeting with Dr. Rabekah Stewart, Dr. Nina Barudzic, Bears Lead students can meet with their Bears Lead advisor, or you may schedule to meet with a success coach from the Center for Academic Success & Transition.

