MSU Bachelor Interdisciplinary Studies: General Studies

The following is a guide to graduation for MSU's Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies degree in General Studies.

OTC Course	MSU equivalent
Discuss with MSU Bachelor of General Studies Advisor to determine if this program is an appropriate option for you. To be considered, it requires 75 hours of previous college credit including transfer credit and dual credit.
The following OTC degree is approved to meet admission requirements to this MSU degree:
Aviation Flight Technology (AAS)
Other students/non-Aviation graduates may also qualify. See note below.

Admission to this program is separate from admission to the University. It requires completion of coursework in two or three MSU departments in place of one major or a major with a minor. It is appropriate for those, who through several years of interdisciplinary and focused study, have learned that their interests are not well served within a single academic major. It is not available to students who currently have fewer than 75 completed hours.

This document was prepared by the MSU Academic Advising and Transfer Center in conjunction with MSU's Bachelor of General Studies Advisor on January 4, 2024 and is subject to change. This information is provided as a guide. Students are required to fulfill MSU graduation requirements to receive a degree and should consult their MSU departmental advisors and the MSU undergraduate catalog for details, including the policy under which a transfer student who remains continuously enrolled may follow MSU graduation requirements in effect when the student first enrolled at their transfer institution (OTC).
